

RESEARCH PARTICIPANTS NEEDED!

YOU CAN HELP US UNDERSTAND HOW RESILIENCE AFFECTS THE HEALTH OF BLACK AMERICANS

“I’M BLACK AND I’M STRONG”: THE HEALTH EFFECTS OF RESILIENCE IN THE FACE OF RACIAL DISCRIMINATION AMONG BLACK AMERICANS IN METROPOLITAN SEATTLE

Eligibility criteria are as follows:

- Participants must have been born and raised in the US.
- Participants must at least self-identify as Black/African-American/Afro-Caribbean, etc.
- Participants must live in the state of Washington.
- Participants must be 18 years of age or older.

The first 30 participants will receive their choice of a $20 gift card from businesses such as Amazon, Best Buy, Regal Cinemas, and more, provided by TANGO!

Principal Investigator: Julius A. Doyle, MA

Department of Anthropology | Center for Studies in Demography and Ecology

For more information, contact Julius Doyle at: judoyle@uw.edu, or call (206) 616-9369