

Application Cover Sheet

Honors Program

Department of Anthropology

This Application Cover Sheet and the Honors Research Statement of Interest (completed by the student) should be returned to the Honors Program Adviser's (Professor Marieke van Eijk) e-mail, by 5 PM the third Friday of Winter Quarter (Jan. 21, 2022). The thesis advisor should send a support email directly to mariev2@uw.edu with "Honors Thesis" in the subject line.

Students should read all requirements for the Anthropology Honors Program [<https://anthropology.washington.edu/honors-program>] and have identified and met with a faculty adviser before submitting an application.

Student Name: _____ UW Student Number: _____
Last First Middle

Student's Mailing Address: _____

Student's Phone Number: _____ Email: _____@uw.edu

1. Student GPA

Total Number of College Credits completed at UW: _____

Cumulative UW GPA: _____ (minimum required 3.3)

UW Anthro GPA: _____ (minimum required 3.7)

2. Honors Research Statement of Interest: Please write a 1-2 page statement of interest that describes 1) your research topic and questions (what is your topic and what questions will guide your investigation of this topic); 2) your reason for wanting to pursue this project (why have you selected this topic and why/how does it fit into your interests: academic, personal, etc.); and 3) details of what experiences, coursework or background have prepared you to be successful in achieving your goals in the Anthropology Honors Program (relevant courses, work, etc.).

3. Email from Thesis Adviser: After identifying and meeting with a thesis adviser, and sharing a draft of your Honors Research Statement of Interest, please have this adviser send an email of support to the Anthropology Honors Program Adviser, Dr. Marieke van Eijk (mariev2@uw.edu).

Name of Thesis Advisor: _____

Student's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Questions and comments to djuerra@uw.edu or morgan23@uw.edu Revised November, 2021.